

Position: Flexographic Printing Press Operator

A family-owned and managed business, known for producing high quality products, while embracing environmentally sustainable practices, is looking for an experienced Flexographic Printing Press Operator to join their team. The ideal candidate would be someone with 1-3 years of experience looking for a long term position.

Responsibilities are as follows: complies with established safety procedures and policies with the intent of maintaining a safe working environment. Read instructions from job tickets. Sets up, adjusts, maintains and operates a flexographic press. Conducts make ready by installing anilox rollers, plates, inks, and dies into the proper stations, making necessary adjustments for optimal print quality. Cleans, lubricates, and makes minor adjustments to maintain quality of production.

Candidate must be self-motivated and a team player will to cross train with other departments. Must be available for overtime when needed. Company offers vacation, sick time, 401K and health insurance. Company may be willing to train an apprentice depending on current skills.

Penmar Industries, Inc.

Stratford, CT 06615

203.853.4868

